EDITORIALS.
The musicale given by the Inter-City Dames at Lyric Hall last Sunday was characterized by the usual high class program and scarcity of seats.

White christian neighbors near Abbeville, S. C., ran a Negro farmer out of the country last week because he refused to sell his holdings for four thousand dollars.

In the matter of community spirit and charitable efforts the Clippers stand ahead of all other girls' clubs. Their recent benefit at Lyric Hall was a complete success, one hundred forty dollars net.

The "A. N. D." girls' club is planning a series of entertainments for local charities. A recent effort cleared nine dollars, which was donated to the Wheatly-Provident Hospital house committee.

The formation of a students orchestra at Lincoln High school fulfills a long delayed need. At the June exercises the patrons will be delighted at the efforts of this organization, even if it is slightly inferior to the white dance hall aggregation.

Will H. Brown, manager of the Ideal Pharmacy, who has nothing else to keep him warm during the cold winter nights, held the lucky number in the Clippers blanket contest Monday evening.

In the death of Aida Overton Walker the race loses its brightest female star in the theatrical profession. It will be a long time before her place will be filled. Beginning at the age of sixteen this talented young artist forged to the top of her calling with a pace almost miraculous. She was not only interpreter of comedy roles but also took high rank in legitimate dramatic and as a dancer she had few equals. Her loss is mourned by thousands, white and colored, throughout the entire country.

LUNCHEES FOR NEGRO PUPILS.

Food Will Be Served at Cost to Lincoln School Children.

The first lunch room to be built in connection with a negro school will be installed at the Lincoln ward school. Many of the pupils attending the school live considerable distances from the building, and it is for their convenience that the lunch room will be established. Food will be served to the children at cost. The room will be open for use in about ten days. Another department valuable to many of the children personally will be a shoe-repairing department to be opened at the Lincoln school. The work will be done in connection with the manual training and the children will have their own shoes to care for. The course is believed to be a practical one for the Lincoln school, especially—Kansas City Journal.

HIGHLAND AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH.

A High Day in Zion.

Last Sunday, October 18th, was a high day at the Highland Avenue Baptist Church, on Highland, between 11th and 12th streets. Dr. Mills, our honored and beloved pastor, had just returned from his six weeks' vacation at Philadelphia, New York, Atlanta, Savannah and Macon, refreshed, looking well, and in his characteristic way preached two powerful sermons during the day.

Sunday morning he preached from the Subject: "The Gospel Standard" to the delight of all present, and at night a large audience greeted him, and we were all treated to another gospel feast of good things from the Subject: "The Saints' Glorious Calling." Dr. Mills was never more under the inspiration of the Spirit. After having enjoyed two very able sermons delivered by the pastor the members and friends began to bestir themselves in a financial way, and when the smoke of the battle had cleared away for the day we had raised $80.75.

I would like to mention here also that our Pentecostal Revival Meeting will begin here at our church, next Sunday night, and that we are expecting the Rev. Dr. Wm. Bryant, of Georgia by next Wednesday, who will assist our pastor, Dr. Mills, in this undertaking. This public are invited to attend these services.

THE REPORTER.

CHILICOTHE, MO.

Rev. M. S. Bryant was a visitor in this city last Monday.

Miss Estella Gales of Linneus, Mo., is the guest of Miss Effie Alex.

Rev. I. L. Tally attended the Baptist Convention at Kansas City, Mo., last week.

Miss Beatrice Dimery returned to her home at St. Louis, Mo., last Saturday, after a month's visit with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ballero.

Mr. Creede Jones opened to the public Oct. 18th a restaurant in the negro business district. Along with this necessary convenience for travelers, visitors and local patrons lurk the danger of over-crowding. We trust such will not be the case with our ideal lunch rooms, restaurants and cafes. We use the word ideal because in the way of food and attendance, nothing desirable is wanted but appetite and means.

For the past two years Bethel A. M. E. Church has been under the pastorate of an experienced minister, Rev. D. W. Oakes. This month his energy and determination enabled him to add unique accomplishments to his years of actual service. The recent Annual Conference saw fit to remove Rev. Oakes. His successor, Rev. Burbridge, made a very good impression upon the large congregation at his first appointment last Sunday. All things considered, he has many years of valuable service for the church he has been called to serve.

That Mr. Nelson Crews is favored with a genius for editing and managing the Kansas City Sun is but knowledge long known by this people. Get his recent success under the guidance of General Love, thereby standing a good and sympathetic wife by his side,—this information sinks to the depths of our hearts only to rise with sincere congratulations and wishes. Congratulations for his happy marriage, and best wishes for a long and happy journey with his beloved.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

All who have had the privilege of going through the new Y. M. C. A. building are amazed at its immensity and the number of departments. It is undoubtedly one of the finest buildings of its size in the country. The dedication will take place the latter part of November.

"The Open Door" is the subject of the address to be delivered by Prof. Shelton French at the Y. M. C. A. headquarters, 1830 Paseo, Sunday, October 25, 3:30 p. m. Prof. French always delivers a popular talk to the Y. M. C. A. men. A stirring talk by Mr. H. J. Harris of Excelsior Springs, a subscriber of $100 to the furnishing fund, was a feature of last Sunday's meeting.

More than $2,300 has been raised toward the furnishings. The teams are pushing the amount up daily. Team No. 3 is still in the lead. Assured by the present subscriptions, the furnishings for the dormitories have been ordered and will be installed immediately and after the 26th inst. applications for rooms will be accepted. With a membership in the Y. M. C. A. a young man may receive accommodations for from $1.50 to $2.50 week.
